My Dear Friend:-

I thought you might care to see the enclosed specimen of your penmanship. It is one of your efforts while you were a student in the little school house where I taught. I taught there during the winter of 1879-80 and a part of the next winter. I also have an autograph album which your boys gave me for a Christmas present. In it you have an eagle similar to this one. On the first page in your hand, and done in red ink is this inscription:-

Zaner & Bloser, -

A line of my business penmanship.

Yours,

E. C. Mills,

I am mailing you this as a specimen of my ornamental penmanship and trust it will please.

Dr. Blue —

The writing on this sheet was executed by Mr. C. E. Doner who is now an assistant in the Zanerian. Mr. Doner is not only the finest penman of his age in the world, but many consider him the best regardless of age. Remit 50 cents for a page of his best work and be convinced.

A specimen of my penmanship ornamental style, such as I was taught in the Zanerian Art College

DONER

It should be remembered that Mr. Doner's work is the direct result of Zanerian methods. He was thoroughly drilled in the Hand, Hinge, and Arm movements and in no others. No other than the Zanerian System of Penmanship would produce such results. If you wish to become one of the finest penmen and best teachers of penmanship attend the Zanerian Art College, Columbus, Ohio.

Robespierre - his memory is an enigma of which his-fearing to do him an injustice if she brand

What manner of man was he? His life, the embodiment of mystery the orthography of his name even in doubt poet and philosopher wielder of a magic pen master of every scale of human passion from the pure and lofty thoughts of a demigod to the anguished mutterings and cries of despair of a lost soul his every character, a human document his delineations, the genuine progeny of world-wide humanity.

Shakespeare's immortality rests upon the fact that his scenes are occupied only by men who act and speak as the reader that he should himself have spoken or acted on the same occasion.

Gentlemen,

You will in this have a specimen of ornamental penmanship such as is taught and practiced in this institution.

Yours truly,

Fanebian Art College

Washington — "four square to all the winds," grave thoughtful, proof against the wiles of British strategy and the poisoned darts of false friends; clear-seeing over the heads of his fellow-countrymen — the most colossal world-

Rome perched Nero
upon the greatest throne on earth, and so set up a poor madman's name for countless centuries as the synonym of savage cruelty.

To understand the world is better than to condemn it.

To use the world is better than to abuse it.

And silver white the river gleams,
As if Diana in her dreams,
Had dropt her silver bow,
Upon the meadows low. —Longfellow

ZANER

The melancholy days are come
The saddest of the year Of wailing winds, and naked woods, and meadows brown, and sere Heaped in the hollows of the grove,
The autumn leaves lie dead;
They rustle to the eddying gust, and to the rabbits' tread
The robin, and the wren, are flown, and from the shrubs the jay,
And from the woodtop, calls the crow Through all the gloomy day," — BRYANT.

Mr. E. A. Lupfer.
Dear Sir;

In this you have a specimen of my roundhand, or engrossers script.

Hoping that it will please you, I remain,

Yours truly,
Willis A. Baird.

The pen the mind's material power, Moves millions by its will,
For from its tip flows many a shower
Of thought drops sure to thrill.

On each and every page of white,
In lines both smooth and graceful,
The pen may leave while in its flight,
Thoughts of the truly grateful.

'Tis not by tongue alone we hear
The workings of the inner mind,
But through the pen so still, so clear
The thoughts and images we find.

Pen not thy thoughts in ink's dark lines
When passion owns thy reason,
But write thou that which ne'er maligns True loyalty, not treason.
